

Step-22: Lightside

The truth about the Lightside is simple, it is not complicated, you only need an IQ of 66, and 70 is normal, and 50 is retarded, so most of you will not understand the Lightside at all, since it is normal to call an IQ of less than 50 normal, because every year they have to lower the standards for what is considered retarded, just so they would have normal people, and they have lowered the bar so low, that everyone is retarded, and do not even know it, and that is what the Darkside is all about, and all anyone knows, myself included, I have no delusions about being Sin-Free, I am guilty of Treason like everyone else, I need Money to Survive, I have to follow Treasonous Laws to stay out of Treasonous Prisons, all because the Torah was Altered, making Satanism also known as the Darkside, a World-Wide Epidemic, effecting everyone on this planet, another word or spell for the Darkside, is called Insanity, the belief in things not real, like lies.

The Trinary Universe is about Trinary Science, which is only the Science anyone can prove is a Fact without using a Theory to explain it, it is based on Trinary, which is the same word or spell as Trinity, the name was changed because Sir Isaac Newton hated the teaching of Trinity with a Deity-God in it, and hated the teaching of Jesus Christ since he proved Jesus Christ was inserted into the Torah during the 4th Century to make Jesus Bar Abbas out to be the Bad-Man, and only the Love of Money Evil, and as we know if we watched all the Steps starting at 0, that Trinary Math is $(+1) + (-1) = 0$, and if you graph it you get a Sine waveform, so it is clear that Torah before it was altered was about the Science of God, and Newton said God is the Force of Gravity in all this Equations, as such, $F = MA$, where F is the Force of Gravity in terms of God, where M is the Mass of Atoms with the Light of God inside, times its Acceleration, which Atoms are made of Neutrino Particles and Light without Darkness, and we know Light has no acceleration therefore it is not moving, so it is the Mass of Neutrinos that make up the Atom that are moving, as such the Energy in that Mass of Atoms is $E = MA^2$, because all Atoms cannot accelerate up to the Speed of Light, that term becomes confusing, but the Speed of Neutrinos does not help clear that up, what will is a simple explanation, if I take a Flashlight and put my finger on the button, and push it, the Electrons in the Battery will be raised in Frequency, till it reaches the Speed of Light, at which point, it stops moving, and as the Universe moves away from that Light, it appears to be moving very fast, but in reality it is not moving, we are, and we can only move when our Atom is in the 0 Dimension of Space, this is known as Ground, which is known as Earth, which is also known as Mother Nature, as such, this is where God Lives, and yes God is a Female, and represented by the number 0, as such, you can learn everything you need to know about the basic Principles of the Trinary Universe, in one paragraph, and it never changes, because it is a fact, and facts never change, and you can prove all this to yourself.

The Lightside is based on the Universe from the viewpoint of the Light, and as you know, we can only see the Darkness, so we only know the Darkside, if we look at an Alternating Current or AC Signal, it has a Positive and Negative half of its Sinewave, the Positive is the Father, and is Matter, and in all 3 Dimensions of Space, but is not the Light, and is just the Darkness like the Negative half, which is Darker, so where is the Light is simple, in the 0 Dimension, or Ground, where we cannot see it, and why we must have Faith God exists as Light, so basically if we view an AC Signal as our Atoms, we see they are Solid, Semisolid, and Invisible, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost Spirit of Mother Nature, so it is the Holy Ghost, which is the number 0, and Mother nature is in the 0 Dimension, as such, so is God since God is the Spirit of Mother Nature, so it is from this viewpoint we look at the Lightside.

The Lightside is everything we cannot see, so we cannot ever visualize the Lightside, yet it is all we can see since Neutrinos encase the Light, it is clear the Light is always there regardless of if the Neutrino is, so the Light is Everything as Nikola Tesla said, and we are Light Beings, so we are that Light, and that Light is not only inside our Atoms, but is everywhere at the same time, and the Light inside the Atoms, do not move with that Light since that Light never moves, it is how Gravity works, the Light is Static, as the Atoms change to the Trinary Invisible State of 0, the Atom has to figure out which way to move, our body is made up of trillions of Atoms, and each of them move at a different Trinary Time, yet have to move as one entity, and God is how this happens, all our Atoms are in Space, and that Space is in the Universe, and it is Dynamic, meaning at the center of every Atom, the Universe can move in any direction, the Universe does not have a specific direction it is moving, the direction it is moving is dictated by the single Atom, and this may be counter intuitive at first, we view our Galaxy as orbiting around other clusters of Galaxies, and our Sun as orbiting around our Sun while other Suns do the same thing, and our Earth is orbiting around our Sun sideways as it moves forward, so it is clear the Universe is not what makes us orbit anything, it is this unseen Light without Darkness, it is Gravity.

An Atom is something easy to understand, there are 3 types: Proton, Neutron, and Electron, when I say Atom, I am normally talking about the Proton and Neutron, being bound in some configuration dependent on number of each, and that makes up the Periodic Table of Elements, but Electrons orbit around the Proton & Neutron Atoms, and is very small compared to them, and an Atom can have a variable amount of Electrons orbiting it at any given time, as such, the number of Protons & Neutrons determine what type of Atom it is, 1 Proton & Neutron makes it a Hydrogen Atom, as such, Atoms are easy to understand, they bind together using Electrons, this is due to how many Protons & Neutrons are in an Atom, every Atom has $1/137^{\text{th}}$ Connection points on it, so there are only 137 Elements in the Periodic Table of Elements, and depending on how many Protons & Neutrons it has, depends on how many Active Connection points it has, the Atoms themselves never come into contact with each other, if they did they would create a Nuclear Explosion since that is what it is, as such, Atoms are the Building Blocks of the Universe, and so far, only God can make them, but I am sure there is a way to make them Artificially, but making them last a long time is another thing, and Alchemy is Chemistry and Electronics as one Science, that is used to explain how Atoms bind, and unbind.

To better explain gravity, let us go to the Space Station, and take two Atom, and separate them by 1 inch suspended in Air, which is a Gas, as each Atom changes from Positive to Negative, it has to pass through Ground, this is where the Light without Darkness is, as well as the Darkness without Light, these are two different types of Light, we can only see the Darkness, but in the Universe all that exist is the Light without Darkness, and Neutrinos, and Neutrinos are what make an Atom, and only Atoms can make Darkness, but they cannot make the Darkness without the Light, so you have to have Light to make Darkness we can see, so the Lightside has a viewpoint of Reality, that it is self-aware of its surroundings, it has the ability to feel Eddie currents, these are Electrons that orbit around the Atom, and we have two Atoms, and if they were Hydrogen Atoms, they have a free valance with a known number of Electrons orbiting it, and these Eddie currents are trying to bond to each other, so as they orbit, they are drawn closer to each other by these Eddie currents, and the Atom and Electron both have 3 Logical State Changes, and they change states in a way that one of them is always solid while the other is changing polarity, the Atom has its own Polarity separate from its Electrons, and this allows them to conduct Electrons around them, using their valance rings of power, and all Atoms have these 3 Rings of Power, or what I call Power Rings, our Earth acts like a very large Atom, it has 3 Power Rings, one at 6.66 Miles from Earth, the next 66 miles, the last is 666 miles away, and each ring has a given power range, like an Electromagnet, if we increase the power to it, it generates more Magnetic Power, and that is how our Magnetosphere works, our Earth is an Atom, it has Valance Rings that carry a current, and it regulates that Power, the other field has the most power, it pulls in Space Debris at a very fast rate, the inner rings keep it moving at right angles to the Earth, as its field realigns all objects that move through it, each ring is pulling the object closer to the Earth using its Eddie Currents, that is what causes Gravity.

The Lightside is what causes Gravity, as the Atom reverses polarity, its field will expand and collapse, making the Electron orbit it, and as the Electron reverses polarity, it cause the Atom to reverse polarity, thus it makes a self-perpetuate machine, Positive is Matter, Negative is Antimatter, so round and round it goes for all Eternity, and all because at 0, God's Light comes out, it collapses the Electromagnetic Field, so it can start up in a new direction, even if that is the same polarity, it will always collapse its field when passing through Ground, and this is what creates our Magnetosphere, and it is about to change its polarity, thus must collapse its field, and since that is our Gravity, we will lose that as well, so the End of Time will be a very strange event in History, and why you have to build to survive this event, underground tunnels, bunkers, or cities, will have to deal with no gravity till the field reverses, this will cause all the Earth to rise up and move freely the entire time our field is collapsed, and when it builds back up, everything will freefall down to Earth, and very few if any underground structures will survive that, because they were not built to, and why I call them underground tombs, and the Darkside is betting the existence of the Human Race on them, but the Lightside knows better, the Earth will be super-cooling at the same time all this is going on, making our Earth brittle, and all those underground pockets that were pumped out for the Oil in them, those will crash down, those offshore will cause massive tidal waves that will wipe out the land around them, Islands like Hawaii, will break off and go to the bottom of the Ocean, everyone will be having a bad day in the End.

I have read a lot of BS or Belief System about the Lightside to know that no one on this Planet has a clue about anything, I do not believe in making stuff up and selling it as something new, the Torah told you everything you ever wanted to know, it had Science beyond our wildest of dreams, but the Church decided Science was something they forbid, and Money is the only thing they demanded from all of Ewe, which if you did not know, a Ewe is a Female Sheep, and the Beast you must take the Mark of, if you are Religious or use their Satanic Money that was forbidden in the Torah before the 4th Century, and why no one on this Earth knows anything about anything, all they know is BS, and why this World is Satanic, everyone is retarded to the point they have no understanding of the Written Language, God is All Light without Darkness, not very complex if you ask me, but Sheep are easily confused, they believe God is an Angel, when we all know the Torah said Satan was a Fallen Angel, and who their Deity-God is, Religion is a Fools Game, to separate retarded People from those with a Normal IQ, that is part 1 of the IQ test, the second part is Einstein's Theory that he denounced, I know it was denounced because we use Sir Isaac Newton's Equations that are based on God as the Force of Gravity, and Einstein removed God, thus all Light, therefore there is nothing in Einstein's Universe, and the belief in things that do not exist, is called Insanity, proving insanity are those Religious or believe God does not Exist, not even Physically, or believe in Einstein's denounced theory, never proven in over a century, proving it is complete insanity, and those who use Money, they are Satan according to the Torah, and Satan is retarded, goes to show you looks are not everything, but the Light is, so let us get passed all the BS Sheep say about the Lightside, and let us talk about the Lightside.

The Lightside is about a lifestyle where Money, Law, and Religion is not allowed, therefore it is the opposite of the Darkside, which is all about Money, Law, and Religion, and with that comes Treason, Crime, and Satanism, all the things the Lightside is not, but you cannot compare two things by just saying the opposite, you have to imagine a society that does not care about these things and can move past them, and into a new reality without them, and it is a new reality, one in which Money cannot be used to get people to commit Treason, and Laws do not put you in Jail or Prison, and one in which you know God is All Light without Darkness, so it is a Reality-based only on the Truth and does not allow Crime, therefore Money, Law, Religion are not allowed since that is all they are, so it is not the same reality at all, you cannot compare them, because they are nothing alike.

The concept of Trinary Sanctuary is to build it in Rings, the Inner Ring is called Light, so I call this the "Inner Light Ring", it is not allowed to have anything that can make it a target, this Ring needs to be secure so no others can get in, it is unarmed, because they do not require arms, and those would make it a target, Money can be used to Compromise it, and Laws are only used to Punish People, and Sanctuary is not allowed to Punish anyone, and Religion just makes Liars out of anyone, and it is all about money, and why the Inner Ring is the “Inner Light Ring”, meaning no Money, no Laws, and no Religion, the things that are the source of most Crimes, and the other rings get Free Power, Air, Water, Food, and Basic Supplies, so there is no Buying & Selling Souls allowed in Trinary Sanctuary, everyone gets the basics to survive for Free.

The Lightside is about Freedom, and that starts with Free of Money, resources are allocated by teams of people that monitor them and plan on resupply, as well as distribution, the concept is to build the infostructure to manufacture everything it will ever need and can take in raw material, and process it, as such, Trinary Sanctuary is about both the Lightside and Darkside, it is not about converting people into the Lightside, it is about taking people that want to live a Lightside lifestyle, and are there because they want to live in Freedom.

You cannot have Freedom when you have to Pay for Food & Water, you have to work for Money, and therefore a slave, in the Lightside, you have no concept of working for money, you work a task, and do not worry about how much money it pays, you work everyday for free, without the need to use money, you have no excuse you do not have money to do something, you do not worry about who is paying for this or that, no paper work, you can focus at the task at hand, without having to worry about things like how are you going to survive, you stop living in Fear, and start living, you can find things you enjoy doing, so you can tolerate doing the tasks no one likes to do, you have a balance to your lives for once in the last two thousands years of history, and you build a Pyramid that can survive all the Events the Earth can throw at it, and build it with Rings for every type of Society you want to support, as long as everyone is allowed the same Freedom for their basic life support, you do not allow Power, Air, Water, Food, or basic supplies to be sold, Trinary Sanctuary must be in charge of everyone’s needs, and Money only provides to those who can afford it, thus Trinary Sanctuary does have this one authority over everyone in it, so Societies will have to change to allow this, we have no Slaves and allow no Slaves, Trinary Sanctuary must give everyone the basic life support for free, and that is a huge undertaking, and not easy to accomplish, but it is the goal to allow everyone free access to basic life support needs, that means all medical needs, as well as well-being, but allow many different Rings, with many different types of Societies at the same time, as such, the Lightside is where all this takes place, it is the inner Sanctum of Trinary Sanctuary.

The Lightside is a frame of mind that we are Light Beings in a body of Flesh, and have a duty to ourselves as well as others, to build a better future for our Children to grow up in, and Money does not give that to anyone but the Rich & Famous, and why they think life is so Grand, but Treason is Treason, and not allowed in the Lightside, nothing that can lead to Treason is allowed, everyone has the same life style opportunities as the next person, no favorites, no special people, just everyone doing their best to build a better future for everyone, and this is not like the Darkside at all, we do not do things for Money or Credit, or anything like that, we do not put a Net-Worth on someone’s life, we do not judge them by things they have no control over, we try our best to get along with others, and try not pushing or regulating everyone's lifestyle, you allow it to grow as it will naturally, and try not to define every aspect of it, let it have excitement, and dull moments as well, do not build it to be something it cannot be, and do not put any expectations in anything, let life happen and deal with it daily.

We all know what a Lightside concept is and what a Darkside concept is by now, it is not complicated, you do not try to force your concept of a Lifestyle on others, nor do you lie to them, or try to take advantage of them, you find a way to deal with people, it is about Life.

The Lightside has specific rules it follows, Alchemy describes this as a Conductor and Electricity, and that is who we are, Light in a body of Flesh, I should know since that is also my name, and I know the Light is Everywhere, and this Light makes us alive, it is Electrons that give us our Energy, and make our Brainwaves when we think or do something, proving it is our Soul, and everyone Buys & Sells Electricity by the Kilowatt, proving they are Satanic, all because Mainstream lies to People to make them Sheeple, that is the Darkside, the Lies and Deceit, all so they can leave you to die on the surface of the Planet, as they pretend their Underground Cities will survive the End of Time, this is how the Human Race goes Extinct, those in Power betray those they are in Power over, but Satan gets their Souls first, because underground is going to find new levels in Hell, as all the empty space in Earth, is about to collapse in on itself, because what goes up, must come down, and why the Next Step is 23, where I talk about the Technology of Trinary Sanctuary, this is what I dream about, but the Reality of anyone building it, is disappearing by the day, every-day that goes by without anyone preparing for these Life-Extinction events, is one day closer to that Extinction, known as the Darkside.
