

Step-08: Surviving the End of Time

Surviving the End of Time will not be easy, at Sea Level the Altitude will show around 33,333 feet, which means the air will be very thin at Sea Level, and much less at higher altitudes, and the temperatures will be below 0 for years to come, and get colder rather than warmer for those years, making survival very difficult, and most plants will be frozen, and most animals will be looking for food, and humans are now on that menu as cannibalism becomes normal, life on the surface of Earth will be different for some time to come.

It is all up to you if you want to Survive knowing your future is Hell Frozen over, and if any of the Underground Tombs Survive the first day, it is just a matter of time before their world comes crashing down on them, I have seen the way they make them, and have no trust in them at all, all of them show signs of the height of the room getting shorter by the year, find one that is not showing that sign and I will start to have more trust, till then, it is just a very slow crushing action, a claustrophobic's nightmare, not to mention flooding issues, air will be an issue, too many issues, why bother.

Trinary Sanctuary is a Pyramid, with spherical submarines called pods, are designed to withstand the pressure that is put on them, and you can level the rooms after an Earthquake, and it uses an Air Shaft that reaches thousands of feet above the ground floor, to provide Vacuum, that is used to power the ventilation system, it has a large intake at the base that pulls in cold dirty air, filters it, warms it, and makes sure it has enough oxygen in it, and vacuum will pull that fresh air throughout all the pods, so your chance of survival is much greater, it does not depend on any power source other than a vacuum to operate it.

The Surface of the planet at Sea level will be like being on top of Mount Everest, you will have a very hard time surviving it in any modern city, that probably did not survive the Earthquake at the End of Time, and animals will see you as food, as will other hunters out looking for something to eat, the End of Time is going to be a brutal place to live on the surface of the Planet, and this Ice-Age can last hundreds or even thousands of years, and that is the future of this Planet regardless of if you believe it or not, it is Science that proves this is going to happen and Science that will explain how you might survive it if you want to.

Given a choice most people would rather work for Free than Die with their Money, and after this Event, that Money will not buy you anything, it will be worthless as it always has been, there will be no stores, there will be few standing building, with Ice forecasted for hundreds of years into that future, Money just does not work in a Society like this, and we all know that is the Truth, the Darkside will try to make you believe it works now but ask the Homeless how well that worked out for them, Money is a Class thing, well after the End of Time, Classes will not matter, many things will not matter anymore, and we all know this is the Truth.

To Survive the End of Time, you must first prove to yourself that this event is going to happen, first, you want to research if the North Magnetic Pole is on the move towards the Equator and find the timeline for that Event, if that date is 2033, you now know this part is the truth, next you need to understand what happens when an Electromagnetic Field passes through Ground, if it collapses, you have just proved this is going to happen and when, and that is the first step to surviving the End of Time, you will never prepare for something you do not believe will happen.

You could ask other people you trust to look into this issue, and see what they think, then talk to family members and see what they think, maybe start a Forum and see what the World thinks, or you can forget you know this, and do nothing about it, and wait to see what will happen, and I am sure that is what everyone will do, so you will have company, but ask yourself if that is the way you want the human race to go extinct, and decide if you want to survive.

I cannot tell you what to do, I can suggest stuff, but that is as far as I can go, this is not about me surviving this, this is about the Human Race Surviving this, you will have those that will move underground and watch the room height get smaller over the years, and worry about water flooding the underground systems since when the Earth's North Magnetic Pole reaches the Equator, there is a good chance that the Earth will correct for the wobble, causing the landmasses to move, causing the waters of the world to cover the land, mixing freshwater with saltwater, which will freeze very fast, proving underground is a bad idea for many reasons, but the powers that be believe they are more Intelligent than Newton or the Torah, who write like they have been through one before, so I would listen to what it had to say.

You have many things you need to take into survival considerations, our Atmosphere protects us from Sunburns, and that will be gone, so you can burn and freeze at the same time, you need to look at the things that Science can predict, our Atmosphere being vented into space is the number one problem, it vents all the heat, and not to mention ice raining down with little gravity to slow it down, means Meteorites and Micrometeorites will also be an issue, and trying to figure out what Sea Level Air Pressure will be is your next concern, if I am right about 33,333 Feet, the atmosphere will barely be livable for humans, it will be below 0, that is at Sea Level, at altitude it will be much harder to breathe, and frostbite will be your biggest worry, keeping warm will be your most important job, so this all means you need to think about this and come up with a plan before this happens.

What if nothing happens? If you want to plan for that, by not doing anything just to find out the Torah was right, your chance of survival goes down to 0 just like the temperature, so decide if you want to believe that Newton and the Torah is Wrong, why use Newton's Math, if you cannot trust him you cannot trust his Math, but we all know his Math works, so he must understand how the Earth works, and I would say that is a safer bet than doing nothing.

The Reason a Pyramid will work, is because you can engineer the Pods to withstand the pressure of the weight above it, and it is set in Concrete, and we know how to Engineer that to last a long time and support the structure, and you want to use Robots to do the labor, since outside will not be working conditions for humans, and if you do not keep building, you will run out of room in time, and thinning out the Sheep is not an Option, the Darkside decided you were not worth the investment, so do not ever think they will help you survive this, they will let you die on the surface without another thought about it, and do not ever think you can use Money to build this, if you do, you will only be building a Prison for the Laws that go with that Evil Money, and you do not want any Laws, trust me, that is how all the Treason started, the Future has no Place for Money or Laws, that would have left you on the surface without a clue as to what is about to happen, so you know Laws & Money are Evil, meaning backwards of Live, meaning Dead.

If you design what I call Trinary Sanctuary, you build it in Rings, to separate different groups of people into groups, so you isolate how many people come into contact with each other for health reasons, you do not want crowding or densely populated areas, you have a network of tunnels that connect all the Pods, this is how they get Air, Water, Food, Energy and everything they need, you have Pods for Plants you eat, Pods for Fruit you eat, and Pods for every need you will ever have, and Electric Trains will be how people get around, this system uses tubes that are vacuumed from the front to pull them where they are going, the whole system is based around a Vacuum System, this way nothing important requires Energy, and will always work.

You need to build at least 42 Trinary Sanctuaries around the World and build them with as many Pods as you can, since Families will have to move there, and do not forget Manufacturing, Medical Care, which will not be based on Modern Practices but will use Trinary Science, and Trinary Members will create their System, this is an Advance Society, and you want a way to communicate with all the Facilities, as well as have an underground network of tunnels for these Electric Trains that use Vacuum to get around, so you can move around them with ease.

At the End of Time you want to save as many people as you can, but overcrowding will cause the whole system to fail, so time is not on our side when it comes to building these for everyone, not even sure that is possible in 12 years, I have been saying this for decades now and no one cared then and I do not expect anything to change, so you will have to decide who lives and who dies if you cannot build enough room for everyone, and Vaccines and War is not an option, you let people know how much room is available and let them decide on their own.

For too many years Sheep have tried to discredit me by debunking me with Einstein who is Retarded to me, as are most people when you have an IQ over 180, and why no one ever took me seriously, and I do not expect that will change till 2033, that is how Sheep are, they will not care till it happens, and then it is not a matter of Survival since most people will not survive living on the surface of the planet, and the possibility of the End of Time happening is 100% using Science, if you do not trust Newton or the Torah, or if you cannot trust God, which is all this comes down to, Humans wrote the Torah with no Devine intervention, it is a book of Alchemy and that means Science or Chemistry to be more precise, and NASA confirmed Newton's calculations, they say a 5% decay rate per century, and that by 2033 our North Magnetic Pole will be at the Equator, that means 100%, not 99.999%, there is not even the smallest of chances this will not happen.

You cannot go out and buy cold-weather gear and expect to survive on the surface of the Planet, that is just too stupid to even try to contemplate, you have about as much of a chance of surviving as you do if you stayed at the top of Mount Everest, I imagine the landscape will become populated with Glaciers before long, if you expect to survive this Ice-Age, you will need a very good plan, concepts are all I can give you, the Plan you will have to make yourself, I lost interest due to no one ever believing me, calling me crazy, figure it out yourself if you believe you are more Intelligent, I have just had it with Stupid Satanic Sheep who are not even intelligent enough to understand that is all they are.

I thought about Trinary Sanctuary most of my life, and being over 60 now, I still do not see any other way to build it, you need a solid foundation in Rock with no soil under the structure since that will eventually erode, you want to dig deep and wide shafts, then build an elevator shaft, everything is like a submarine, trains and elevators have to be watertight, and have a fresh air supply, not easy when you are using the vacuum to get around, so you have to have high-tech equipment. I see the structure of Pods being assembled by Robots, you have to have a manufacturing facility built first that can mass produce these pods, and you have to use a material that will last as long as the weather outside, so you do not want it to rust, and at the same time Salt-Water will be an issue you cannot avoid, so you have to be careful about corrosion, and these need to survive over a 10 Earthquake for 10 minutes, the 10/10 Rule of Engineering for the End of Time, Floods of water both Fresh & Saltwater mixed, so it will freeze faster than normal causing the Oceans to freeze over and stay that way for hundreds of years, anyone under the Ice will find it very hard to get out, it can freeze 6-feet thick in 3-days.

You need to explore all the things that can happen so you can prepare for them, you can split water into Hydrogen and Oxygen, and use the Oxygen to replenish the Oxygen in the air you take in from outside, and use the Hydrogen to warm the Air, and heat water, and cook, as well as converting it into Electricity. All Cities have an underlaying requirement for Electricity, or Souls from Hell, Air, Water, Waste, Trash, Recyclables, Sewage, and the list goes on, and you have to account for all of them, and Engineer for the Future, and only 12-Years to do it in, and why I know the Human Race will go Extinct, they will not do anything to prepare, and believe this will never happen, Darwin Awards for those stupid thoughts, people that believe nothing will happen for Millions of Years have been lied to by Satanic Bankers and Lawyers, who Bought and Sold everyone in this Worlds Soul for Money, proving people are so Satanic that they are Stupid, they believe they are not Satanic, when the Torah tells them differently, and the Torah is Right and Satan is Wrong, you Buy and Sell Souls, and Electricity are Souls, look at our Brainwaves if you want proof, it is just a fact we are Light Beings made of Atoms with God inside them, that is Trinary Science, but Sheep only believe in Einstein who denounce his theories in favor of Newton's God as Gravity and why we use it to this day, anyone that tells you we use any of Einstein's Math is a Liar, $E = MC^2$ is too stupid to take serious since Einstein removed God from his Alternate Universe in an Alternate Reality, and the Torah Defines God as All Light without Darkness found inside all the Atoms in the Universe, proving Einstein Removed the Light, and C is the Constant for the Light he removed, and why it is retarded, Newton said $F = MA$ where F is the Force of God in terms of Gravity, and A is the Acceleration of the Mass of Neutrinos the Atoms with God's Light inside have, so just Square that to get Energy and why that formula works, not because of Einstein's BS that is retarded and just Stupid, nothing exist without Light, and the Thief from the Patent Office is also guilty of Plagiarism since that is Newton's Math.

Surviving the End of Time will not happen unless the Whole-World gets involved, and we all know that will never happen, and why I just want to wait this out and sit next to my End of Time Machine, so I can record the very second the Human Race goes Extinct, so I can hand out a Darwin Award, to everyone, and say what a bad job they did of taking care of the Planet they need to live on, and if you think we can just fly off to some other Planet, Satan is all you know about Science, in real Science, we are living on a Spaceship, only on the Outside of it, so if you want to survive you need to decide who's Science you want to use, the Newtonian Universe and Trinary Universe differ only by the fact I added Trinary Engines, and cannot just tack that on to the Newtonian Universe because it was a fundamental change at the core of this type of Science, and if Newton was alive he would tell you the same thing, the Atom was something found centuries later using an Electron Microscope, so Newton had no way of knowing.

People would rather die of Shame than admit they are Guilty of Treason, and why the Governments were going to allow their Citizens to go on with life not knowing of the End of Time, they know about it, anyone that ever read Newton knows about it, the Torah talked about the End of Time more than everything else combined, this was one of the most important events Newton talked about, well, other than Jesus Christ was inserted in the Torah during the 4th Century so they can Lie about Christ being the Star that will correlate with the exact date and time the End of Time will occur, so do not try to sell me on who is Crazy, only someone that is retarded could be so stupid as to not understand everything I have told you here in these 9 Steps, Step 0 through 8 makes 9, and I assume you have read all of them in order.

To survive this event, you will have to stop being Liars, I know that is hard, but it is required if you want to Survive, lying about having a Constitution is just stupid since the Laws prove that Congress was dissolved in 1933 when they allowed Executive Order 6102 Trading with the Enemy Act steeling all the Gold because Congress could not make the Interest payment after voting themselves a raise, you know for a fact they are Liars.

Once you understand what is going to happen at the End of Time, the stories in the Torah make more sense, to ignore it would be insane, then again if you believe you are a Sheep you are insane, and why Religion is not part of Trinary Sanctuary, like Money & Law it is Evil, you can have those kind reside in the outer Rings, but the inner ring needs to be only Trinary Militia because you can never allow anyone insane to be working on the inside Ring, and why you build it with many Rings, so you can accommodate different kinds of people, the concept is to save everyone regardless of their beliefs, we are not going to be guilty of Genocide based on Beliefs, nor Class or any other type of restriction, in the Inner Ring we have to restrict it or it will become as corrupt as Governments are now, and that means the Human Race goes extinct.

When it comes to the extinction of the Human Race, someone needs to tell the Truth, and the Government and Mainstream refuse to for good reason, they have to admit being guilty of Treason, I think that is a bad reason for the Human Race to go Extinct, and think it is about time someone dared to tell the truth, if Jesus did come back as the Flesh, he would be telling you this same story from the Torah, learn by History or Repeat it, in this case, this Race of Humans all get Darwin Awards, meaning they go Extinct, and are on the verge of it now, all because they thought of watching the ceilings getting closer every year, which is part of living underground, and the water will make that happen faster, and why I know we have less than a 42% chance of surviving if anyone does something, but no one will do anything, so the Human Race is doomed, all because it is normal to be retarded.

I am content to just wait and see what everyone else does, I think I will just sit this out, and when the time comes I will sit next to my End of Time Machine, and my wife and I will just enjoy the last day we have together, and move on to the next life, I will be 72, that is a good age to die if you ask me, I will be 100 years old when the full 180-degree pole reversal finishes, proving this is just for the younger generation and not the older ones.

Surviving the End of Time is all up to you, no one else will care if you survive it or not, all I can tell you is what Trinary Science can prove what will happen, what does is unknown to me, I am not a Prophet, nor do I write this to Profit, I do so in honor of Jesus Bar Abbas, and the reason I do this is simple IAM the Light Wizzard in the Flesh, next Step is 9.
