

Step-03: Time

The Time to talk about Time is now, and we use dates and this was written in the year 2021, so when we talk about Time, we can talk about what Hour it is, what day it is, or even what year it is, and go beyond that and talk about what Century it is, so Time is a vague concept that describes many things about our Reality, and Time is at the very foundation of our Reality, so what is Time, and what is Trinary Time, is a concept we will talk about now.

Trinary Time is a unit of measurement that describes how long it takes an Electron to move $\frac{1}{137}$ th the distance around an Atom, so it is a very short time, but when you need to talk about Trinary Science, we know we are talking about Atoms at the Subatomic Level of Science, so we want to make sure we have the resolution in time, to make these measurements in time, and know that given the type of Atom, say a Hydrogen Atom, and what temperature it is at, we can duplicate that measurement of time.

Time is a reference to how long it takes an Electron to move a specific length during that time period, and we can set that rate for many resolutions, but we need to make sure it is a repeatable time measurement, and accurate, and that depends on a lot more factors then I just mentioned, the Altitude you are at, the Air Pressure, Magnetic Lines of Deviation, the placement of equipment and furniture in the building, the last time the floor was swept, and what types of clothes people in the building wear, and these are just a few of them, and why it is hard to document your set up for this type of time Measurement, but it is the detail required to set a standard for Time Measurement, using atomic decay is not enough accuracy for the type of Time measurements I am talking about here, and the reason is simple, two atoms can decay at different rates, because they can be in different stages of decay, plus all the other factors I have mentioned, and why there needs to be a better standard for measuring time.

Why do we need such accuracy of time is unknown at this time since a better time standard is required for every need requiring time to be accurate, currently we have to adjust our Clocks twice a year, and we have to sometimes add or subtract time to make our time more accurate, we currently use a 12-month calendar because someone wanted to remove the number 13 from Time, thinking that number was unlucky, a Lunar Calendar has 13 Months each having 28 days for 364 days a year, and they would adjust for time using the Moon, and for the better part, it is changing over time, as our Planet grows in circumference our Planet moves away from our Moon the same distance, about a half inch a year, so a day a hundred years ago was not the same length as it will be a hundred years from now, so basing it on a Calendar System will make your Seasons right, but not your understanding of time in a day, which changes over time, proving that how we measure time needs a new Standard.

If we align our years with the Great Pyramid and the Star Sirius, we will have a better alignment with our Galaxy, but this will require throwing away days to make up for Seasons, and the problem with a variable day time change over long periods, so we need to come up with a system that considers all this, in a new standard.

Why a new standard in time is required is simple, I have no way of knowing how accurate our Calendar is, I do know the Great Pyramid and the Star Sirius align on 14 January every year, and that is the date the Torah said this Event would take place, originally I was thinking this was just one event, but as it turns out, it is 3 events, the first is when our North Magnetic Pole started to move towards the Equator, the second is when it gets there, and the third is when it completes a full 180 degree reversal and gets to what we call the South Pole, and the date that it gets to the Equator is in relationship to where the 0 reference line is for the Equator, when our Magnetosphere will go from being Positive, in what everyone calls the Northern Hemisphere, and before it turns to Negative, the fields will collapse thus will not exist at this 0 point when the Poles reverse, this is the date you need to set your new Calendar too, and call it Star Date, Sirius or Christ is what it is known as, to mark the exact time the Earth Reverses its Pole, and the End of the Human Race, who did not believe they needed to prepare for these events.

I am building an End of Time Recorder Machine that can measure this event by monitoring for the Air Pressure to drop dramatically, and continue to drop, raising our elevation level, think of this as if you were on top of Mount Everest, say at 33,333 Feet in Altitude, by the time our Atmosphere stops venting into space, that will be the Altitude level at Sea Level, making the top of Mount Everest the same as space is now at 66,666 Feet in Altitude, this will cause the Earth to be super cooled, and why building underground is a bad idea, the Ground will Crack, and could go Nova, meaning to break up in chunks, like a block of ice shattered, and this is all going to happen very fast, our Magnetosphere will start to get weaker at a very fast pace, this can be detected with Electronics and maybe able to warn you of a pending event, and why a time standard is important, so we can accurately monitor these events in real-time, and record them in a way future civilizations finding them, can figure out when this happened based on a Time System that would make sense to an Advance Society finding them, and were wondering why the entire Human Race went Extinct, and I am sure those that we call UFO's, know why, and will understand my End of Time Recording device.

I cannot predict the Future, and Jesus Bar Abbas was not a Prophet, so the Torah knows this, not the Satanic Version after the 4th Century, but those prior to it, told of a story that I have been explaining in Steps, and this is just Step 3, and the First 3 are Free, but I started numbering at 0, to include God, which is the number 0 in Math, the Holy Ghost Spirit of Mother Nature, so this is the 4th Episode in a series with 34, or 33 Steps, all depending on how you count them, and the Torah said not to make into God anything God is not, nor could be, so we know God is Light, so how can we keep track of time using Light, that way we can better understand this event that is going to happen when our Magnetic North crosses from the Positive Hemisphere to the Negative Hemisphere, it has no choice but to vent the Atmosphere, so do not think you have a chance that this will not happen, the Science is right, so this is just the Physics of it, and not a theory about what might happen in the future if the Torah is right, this is way beyond that, I know the dates Newton picked are what NASA predicts, so I have no reason to doubt the Torah, I know NASA is right, we are about to reverse our Poles, and those that tell you nothing will happen get a Darwin Award for being the stupidest person alive, all because they believe in Einstein, and in a Deity-God, you want to know the truth, our Magnetosphere is all that holds in our Atmosphere.

The problem with Time is that it waits for no one, everyone says they never have enough time, but time never stops so how can that be, it is more about how we view time does our view about time change, our time on this Planet has taught us nothing, because in the End, the Rich & Famous made it clear, that the Underground Cities are why they are not talking about Life Extinction Events like the Near-Earth Object in 2027 when the Sky is Falling, to what will happen when our North Magnetic Pole Reverses in 2033, those that believe nothing will happen, would have to defy all the Laws of Physics to prove it, all Electromagnetic Fields Collapse when they change from a Positive Field to a Negative Field when they pass through Ground, that is something everyone knows is the truth, but Time will tell, I am not a Prophet nor can I predict the Future, all I can do is explain Trinary Science, and it is absolute, there is a 100% chance of this happening, maybe I can be wrong in how much Atmosphere is going to vent, but I am 100% positive this will happen, because the Science demands it to happen, but like they say, in time we will all know, the thing is if I am right, all of you will be dead, so is this how the Human Race wants to go out, by letting the Rich & Famous Lie about knowing about this Event all because they believed their Underground Cities would Survive this Event, then deny this will happen, all because they need you to Buy & Sell Souls, and you are the Chosen ones, chosen to die at the End of Time on the surface of the Planet without even knowing, and why Time waits for no one yet everyone waits on Time.

If we look at Atoms, we have 3 types: Proton, Neutron, and Electron, each has 3 Power Rings known as Valance Rings, so we have 3, 6, and 9, this is a Vortex Number, and all has to do with the way Electrons orbit Protons and Neutrons, each Proton and Neutron combination will change how many physical atomic connections it has with other neighboring atomic structures, therefore when one Atom has 3 Valances, two Atoms have 6, and three Atoms have 9, that is the maximum number of Valance bounds in one group known as an Atomic Valance Ring Vortex, you can create these patterns to take advantage of these Electrical Bonds, and if you can regulate their Temperature, you can use their energy to keep track of Time, by sensing the atomic energy in one spot of atomic material, that contains 3 Atoms or more, but only focus on 3, you can see this under an Electron Microscope, all material will bond in groups of 3 Atoms at the Atomic Level in Nature, you can change this property in an Electronic Circuit, the pattern looks like a Triangle or Pyramid shaped grouping of Atoms that make up any material, even Carbon Atoms bind in this same shape, and why you cannot get a one Atom width string of Atom, you can get two Atoms width by getting the Triangles to interlock end to end, this is a very common Atomic String structure, once you view it in this arrangement, proving we all can prove these 3 Power Rings physically Exist, and do bind in this manner known as 3, 6, 9 or Vortex arrangement.

A Vortex means its Valance Rings are bound in String Chains, when you have 3 Atoms made up of Protons and Neutrons in a Pyramid shape, they look something like the below 3 Asterisk:

If we chain two of them from end to end, we get the below:

This Vortex Chain creates the path of the least resistance and is a conductor, this is important if you need to know that path when constructing conductors in Time-Sensitive Devices, where all aspects of a Conductor come into creating the very timing you need in a Circuit.

If you take 3 Vortex Chains and have two of the Chains have a frequency that is 180 degrees out of Sync, and the third filling in the gap so that they are all out of phase and arrange them in a manner where they have a specific air gap, you can optimize the way that 3 phase power flows through power lines, and also helping to preserve its timing or Frequency, over long runs.

A Vortex is created in 3-Dimensional Space using Trinary Math, as the 3 Valance Rings around Proton and Neutron Atoms, I will call Power Rings, form with the Ground as the center point Electrons will orbit around in a Helix waveform, below is the same representation as above, only this time I have added @ symbols to show where the Power Rings intersect, and why you will find that Electricity will flow through a material using the path with the least resistance, so by arranging the atomic structure of a material you can create this path, as seen below.

It should be clear that the way the Power Rings interlock is what creates this path, if we look at one set of 3 Hydrogen Atoms denoted by *, and picture Rings and where they will intersect as denoted by @, you will see a pattern, the interlocking Rings form a bond around the center point, where both sides converge, and all the interactions are what cause the material to bond together, Glue works using this same principle, it is an Electrical response to chemical reactions.

They do not teach this in Chemistry, but they do not Teach God Exist either, proving Mainstream Science really sucks, and why I took the time to try to get you to understand a Vortex at the Subatomic Level, $(+1) + (-1) = 0$ defines a Vortex, so let us look at this Graph of God's Equation again, take your hand, left or right, and touch your index an thumb together and look through it, now imagine the 0 is in the center of this hole, Positive is on top, and Negative is below, as it goes from 0 to 1, in either direction, it is twisting around your fingers, to understand this, with one hand making the hole, take the other hand and use a finger to point to where the other index finger and thumb touch, that we will call 0, if you go down it is Negative, if you go up it is positive, so go down, this is negative, Ground is the Center, so you are orbiting it, as you get to the opposite side of the 0, we have 0 again, this time we will reverse our polarity and go up, till we get back around to 0 again, the Positive half is up so it is Matter, the Negative half is down, so it is Antimatter, and why the two chase each other around in a magnet.

You need to understand this Vortex is a normal Electricity Sine waveform, and how it works, without the Vortex, it would not work, the Vortex is what causes Magnetic Induction as the Power Rings interlock, the Electron will always take the path of least resistance, if a Material has too many Electrons, the Electron will exit the North end of the material, as it does it will be drawn to the nearest South end and will travel in this Helix pattern, our Sun also moves in this pattern, as does our Earth as it orbits around the Sun, this is why we have an Equinox and Solstice, and why you need to understand Trinary Math, Trinary Electronics, and Trinary Science in General, and this is right out of the Torah before it was Altered.

This Electrical Vortex is the Key to Time, it has Frequency and Wavelength, and its Frequency Times its Wavelength is the Speed of Light, which is not a good term since Light has No Acceleration it has no Speed, and why Time Proves Light is Static, as the Electron travels through Ground, all its Neutrinos will collapse in the 0 Dimension where there are no Dimensions for Light to move, which proves it is Static, and the Universe is Dynamic, and if we could follow one photon of Light, we would understand that it is not moving, we are, and at the Speed we see that Light moving away from us, but I have to explain this to people with Low IQ's, without calling them retarded for not being able to understand how we view Light, Kepler, Newton, and Tesla all viewed Light as being Static, that is just a fact, Newton wrote that Light has No Acceleration, and proved that only things that have Acceleration are moving, so Light stops as we move away from it, looks the same as if Light was to move away from us, push or pull is the difference, nothing perceivable seen.

You will find Calendars that have 13 Lunar Months with 28 days each, in two calendar systems found in Pyramids, one is 2012 year cycles, the other is in the 2060 year cycles, currently, both of them are aligned to our Calendar System, and why they all point to the same Time event in History, the Torah said many things about the End of Time, the Body of Pisces the Fish started in the year 1 AD and ended in 2013 where the Tail begins, the Sky will Fall in 2027, and in 2033 our North Magnetic Pole will Reverse its Polarity, and will stop moving when it gets to what we call the South Pole in 2061, and yet another event in the year 2103 completing the End of Time Event, and the Tail of Pisces the Fish, although technically it ends at each event, making 3 lines at the Tails end, and there are pictures of this showing 3 wavy lines after the fish Tail, some say it is Aquarius the bringer of Water, and just shows the Fish swimming in Water, you can believe what you want to believe.

The Torah said if Jesus could not find people who would Live without Sin, all would go to Hell, which is another way of saying you will die, but your Soul will never go to Heaven, but most people in the last two thousand years, have only served Satan, most will deny this, those that Worship Jesus Christ, do so because they follow a version of the Torah written after the 3rd Century, after the Church who murdered Jesus for Money, also known as the Roman Empire, this was proven to be a fact by Sir Isaac Newton after inspecting 3 sets of Torah's, proving the Torah after the 4th Century is a Lie, and only Satan Lies, proving the Church has not changed, it needs to pass around the Money Pray Tray, so you will not find any truth in the Torah about Science since it was all removed and replaced by Religion, which is the belief that their Deity-God is God, and that God does not Exist, not even Physically, so it cannot be the God who is All Light in the Torah since that God Physically Exits, and since all Religions are based on the Torah after the 4th Century, they all Worship Money, that is their God with "In God We Trust" engraved on it, proving they Worship Money as God since the Torah told you not to do that, and that is what the Torah Call Sin, and said no one who Sins will Survive in Time, you might think that this does not apply to you if you do not believe the Torah, but it is a Book about Science and not Religion the Satanic Church turned it into, and this Science makes sense, those that believe their Underground Cities will last the first day all get Darwin Awards, they sacrificed everyone on the Surface to prove how Evil they are, backwards of Live since they died of Stupidity, and in Sin, they are knowingly going to allow everyone to die on the surface of the planet without them knowing it, just to save their own lives, but since their Science is pure BS, their Underground Cities will become Tombs, the Torah said the Wicked will Dig their own Graves, and Wicked means those in Power, or the Powers that Be, the Church and its Governments, who are building underground cities at everyone's expenses, just for the Rich & Famous, that makes them Wicked, and they know if you find out, you will want to have them all executed for Treason, and why they have Vaccines and God Bombs to kill all of you, proving they are Wicked, and that is because those that go to Church believe they are Good, which means they are Bad, they have to take the Mark of the Beast known as a Sheep like Ewe, so you know what the Churches Game is.

In Time you will find out all the Torah told you will happen, will happen just like it told you, and that is because it is based on having gone through it before, and is just telling you that.

The next step is 4, Surviving, as if you do not know what you need to Survive, maybe it could be the End of Time.
