

Step-04: Surviving

When we think about Surviving, it all depends on what you are trying to Survive, and what I want to talk about is Surviving the Sky Falling in 2027, and the End of Time in 2033, in which our Earth will complete a full 180-Degree reversal in 2061, and Newton said is it not over till 2103, so this is a lot to survive, and all different types of Survival will be required to survive them all.

Before we can talk about Surviving, we need to talk about the events, the first is the Sky Falling in 2027, any Continent it impact will have massive devastation, your options for survival as a Species is not the same as for individuals, you only have two options, build on the surface, or build underground, and why I designed Trinary Sanctuary to have a Pyramid on top of the Surface, with an underground system below it, and the reason is simple, you have redundancy in this plan, when you take into account the Science of what will happen when our Atmosphere is vented into Space, meaning that the ground will freeze solid for miles, how deep depends on how much Oil or Earths Blood is in that area, if it is depleted, it will freeze down past the point they pumped out the Oil, if they pumped it out at Sea, the Sea will freeze down past the point they pumped out the Oil as well, so we know the Earth will break up into sections around those areas, so you have to plan where you want to survive, in an area that can survive, but I would not expect any underground system to survive the Earth Super Freezing, and that is what is going to happen.

The concept of Earth Super Freezing is simple, when our Atmosphere starts to vent into Space, the first thing that will happen is at 66,666 Feet above the surface of the Planet, this space has a very thin layer of Atmosphere, it is in a vacuum, so it is like outer space, but not like it at the same time, all Satellites orbit outside this zone, but cannot go as far as 666,666 Miles above the surface of the Planet, and that is where our Magnetosphere is, and once our North Magnetic Pole gets to the Equator and the Magnetosphere collapses, all the Satellites that are being held up by that Gravity, which is what it is, an Electromagnetic Force Field, and now we have two actions acting on the Satellites at the same time, they have no gravity, this means they move with the flow, and that Flow is our Atmosphere that is no longer being held in by our Magnetosphere, and we know it will regenerate, and I calculated that time as $\frac{1}{137}^{\text{th}}$ the diameter of Earth, or around 6.66 minutes, and that is a long time to be venting Atmosphere, and doing the Math makes my mind ache, I know we have 3 Power Rings around Earth, much like Atoms have 3 Valance Rings, the first is at 6.66 miles above the surface, the next 66,666 miles, the next 666,666 miles, and some Science will take place, the Vapor in all that Atmosphere will Freeze, and with no Gravity, it will go with the flow just like the Satellites, the rate of this expansion in that amount of time, would effectively lower the average elevation in terms of what was once considered normal Air Pressure for half the distance from the surface to 66,666 Feet, where the Atmosphere becomes a Vacuum, you have 33,333 Feet at Sea Level, why half the volume of Atmosphere is simple, at the rate our Atmosphere could expand while being frozen at the same time is limited by the total amount of Atmosphere, that much Atmosphere can only expand to twice its volume before it collapses in on itself as a liquid, which is around 12 minutes, so half of that.

To understand survival at this point in time, we need to understand it in terms we can understand, Sea Level will now be like being on top of Mount Everest at 33,333 Feet, now, but after the reversal, it will be at 66,666 Feet, or in a Vacuum, this will Super Freeze Mount Everest, and that Freeze will go down into the Earth and freeze it hundreds of miles deep, our Atmosphere will be very thin, with very little Oxygen, and all the plants are now dead, as is most life, this is the End of Time, what did you expect, and that is only the Atmosphere, we need to talk about the Earthquakes now, and those are felt around the world, no gravity means this Planet is like a Top, and you know what happens in Space if you let go of a Top, it corrects itself, this means the land will move miles in some places on Earth, the Oceans and Lakes will all mix together, there will be massive tides, some thousands of feet tall due to the lack of Gravity, and as soon as that Gravity comes back on, everything will Freefall back down to Earth with little to no resistance, and our future will be like this for hundreds to thousands of years while the Atmosphere rebuilds.

Micrometeorites will now be a major issue, we will not have the Atmosphere to burn them up, so they will impact with Earth, you will freeze and burn at the same time due to the lack of Atmosphere, all those Satellites and Space Junk, and thousands of tons of ice all came crashing back to Earth, the surface is freezing feet thick per hour, this is our Future we must survive in.

Now that we know what we have to survive, how is the next question, having seen where most of the Underground Cities are, I know they will become Underwater Cities, the Earthquakes originate from the Core, so all Underground Cities will be Crushed, they are not designed to withstand a 10-Earthquake for 6.66-minutes with no gravity, everything will start to rise, the Earth will rise, its surface for miles deep will rise while being subjected to a 10, no wonder all the UFO's have been seen leaving the Planet, maybe they know their underground and underwater Cities would not survive this, but it is clear no one on this planet is going to prepare for this event, those Underground Cities are just Tombs waiting to happen.

If you want to build something to survive this, you will have to build it fast, my concept was Trinary Sanctuary, a Pyramid as large as you can build and finish in time, the center is an intake air stack, this needs to be extremely high from the base of the structure, it will create a vacuum that will be used to power the Pyramid. The main structure is what I call Pods, they are spherical pods, that are just like a Submarine, fully self-contained, with tubes that connect all of them in a network. Air is sucked in from the lowest point possible, it is filtered, oxygenated, warmed, and using vacuum, is pulled throughout the network, this is for safety reasons, we are guaranteed a constant supply of vacuum, so we can use it to run generators, transportation using vacuum tubes, and other needs.

Trinary Sanctuary is founded on the idea of Freedom, meaning No Money, No Laws, and No Religion, it is based on a Center Ring, outside that Ring, you can build as many Rings as you want, my concept was to get the World involved and allow them to build their Rings, if we can get enough Trinary Militia members who run Trinary Sanctuary, based on an Unarmed Military, mainly just using their concepts, Technical Data, and Technical Orders, and Rank just show proficiency at a task, as such, the Militia work for Free, in True Freedom, and this ensures everyone in all the Rings get Free Air, Food, Water, Energy, and basic Supplies, so no one will ever have to Buy or Sell Souls again.

The Concept of Trinary Sanctuary is to have it self-governed, a computer system will be used to allow people to assign themselves to tasks they know they are better suited to do, training is required for all tasks, and people work in small groups and have people to manage the system, and make sure everything is working right, mostly training and Technical Data and Orders is all you need to get a job done efficiently, no need for supervisors, or upper management, the Militia are trained to do a job, one of those jobs is to self-manage themselves.

The full complex has its Military on outside Rings, they are the only ones allowed to be armed, being Medically Retired Military, you will understand why I designed Trinary Sanctuary in Rings, it makes getting to any point in any Ring, much easier for the Military to protect.

The Rings outside of Trinary Sanctuary, which is only the Center Ring, can be named to anything that describes what that Ring is about, for example, a Zion Ring, and Rings of Federal Employees, and Rings for every Culture that wants their Ring, this way we have no issues, we build no Prisons and take no Prisoners, this is a closed community, you can Banish someone from one Ring to the Next, if they do not make it in the Military, they will Banish them to the Surface, outfit them to survive, make them a scout, give them a vehicle to survive in, and a task at proving they can learn to do a job right or die, in time they will come around or die, but at least they go out on their terms and were given as many chances as possible to get along with whatever Society they are in.

As long as all the Rings are given the Right to Self-Govern their Ring, and not to interfere with others, this type of Society should be able to survive, but getting them to do this in time, is something that is not going to be easy, and why I have always told you not to Protest, not to Riot, not to do anything that would get you to put in jail, or prison, as such, what you have to do is come up with a plan on how to get the World behind this, because only then will anyone Survive these events known as the End of Time.

The problem with People is that they want to play the Blame Game, well this is the facts, the United States lost its Constitution in 1861, that was 100-years before I was born, and I am over 60 now, so 160 Years without a Constitution, a little late to say anything about it, why would you want to try now, it would make no sense to even get upset about it, at this point, it is beside the point.

You have to choose what you want, if you want Justice, you will never get it, all you will get is “Just-US”, so why would you want to go there, we know Treason can never be made Legal, nor our Constitution Amended to allow Treason, so why does this matter at this point, if everyone is going to die if we all do not work together instead of going to war, which we all know the Military will Win, and why I say, Never go there, if you want Trinary Sanctuary, ask them for it, and I am sure at first they will not get it, enough ask and they will get it.

Even if you build Trinary Sanctuary, there is no guarantee anyone will survive this but do not build it, and there is no chance I see, unless they are hiding some underground city I do not know of, but do you want to bet the Human Races Existence on a City built by people who believed in Einstein’s Theories, give me a break, no chance they will survive.

The way I look at underground Cities is simple, the Earth will Super Freeze making it brittle, and with Micrometeorites being a danger, Meteorites will be devastating, you will need way more Plan B’s, if that is Plan A, the Earth might absorb an impact today, but will not after 2033, this will be known as an Ice-Planet for a long time, so maybe a Plan C, D, E and maybe even F, just to have a Hex Plan, which is better than no Plan, which is what everyone has now.

To say we will just wait to see what happens, is same as standing on train tracks as you see a train coming, when are you going to plan on getting out of its path, after it goes by, and that is what everyone is doing now, do not tell me that I am the only one who figured this out, that is just way too stupid to contemplate, maybe I do have an IQ over 180, but did I really need one to figure all this out is a question I have to ask myself all the time, but no one will ever listen, they will all make fun of the very notion of this happening, and no one is talking about this but someone born on Jesus Bar Abbas and Sir Isaac Newton’s Birthday, who like Newton, thinks Jesus Bar Abbas came back in his Flesh, but in my case Flesh is my Legal name, but the fact is I am telling the same story, so you have to decide who you want to believe, the lie, or the Torah before the lie, which is what Sir Isaac Newton told you, and you use his Math for Gravity, so I would trust him when it comes to what will happen at the End of Time.

The reason why most people do not believe God Physically Exists, is because they are retarded, meaning they have an IQ of a retarded person, anyone with a normal IQ of 20 points above retarded, would have enough IQ Points to understand that if God is All Light without Darkness, and you know that Physically Exist, even if you are Blind, Light and Darkness still exists, so believing it does not exist is proof that you are Legally Insane for believing in things that do not exist, proving Religion is just Legalize Insanity, they first get you to believe you have Rights to believe what you want, if you ask them where this Right comes from, they cannot tell you, they will only tell you that everyone knows, but I do not, and in fact, I can prove no right like that exists, and there are Prisons of people who can verify this fact for you since all of them bought into that Right to believe Lies Concepts, only Satan would teach that, or Think that is true, but for Weak-Minded Fools known as Religious Sheeple since they took the Mark of that Beast, as did anyone Buying & Selling Electricity used to make Light, knowing the Torah said God is All Light, proving they are Buying & Selling God by the Kilowatt, as well as our Souls, all because of People who believe God does not Exist, not even Physically.

If you want to survive the Sky Falling and the End of Time, you will have to prove to yourself this is a Real Event that is going to happen, meaning you need to have at least an IQ of 70, if you know you do not, do not attempt to think, you might hurt yourself, just go with the Flow, and die with everyone who does not believe in what you know is the Truth.

It all comes down to what you can prove to yourself is the truth, so break it all down into questions you need to answer:

1. Is God All Light without Darkness found inside Atoms?
2. Is a Sheep a Beast like Ewe?
3. Are you Satan if you Buy & Sell Electricity used to make Light you know is God?

If you can answer those 3 questions, you know everything you need to about the Church and all its Members, including yourself if you were one if you want to continue to serve Satan is all up to you, but you now proved to yourself that no matter what any Church Member says, these 3 Questions will not change, write them down on paper and carry them around with you, ask everyone you know these 3 Questions, and never forget what they mean.

If you want to know about the Sky Falling, just search NASA's website, look up when our North Magnetic Pole will be at the Equator, and answer these 3 Questions:

1. Is the chance of a Near-Earth Object impacting Earth around 96%?
2. Is the North Magnetic Pole going to cross the Equator around 2033?
3. Do Electromagnetic Reversing Polarity when passing through Ground Collapse its Field?

These are Questions to write down, answer them to prove to yourself this is a Real Event that is going to happen, and you will know your answer, no one is talking about it but me, Jeffrey Scott in the Flesher, or Light Wizzard in the Flesh, the same Message Tesla, Newton, and Kepler told you going back to Jesus Bar Abbas, so what else do you need to know to prove this is a Real Event and is going to happen, the questions are not hard, you can ask everyone you know, to ask everyone they know, just to make sure everyone agrees about these 6 Questions.

Survival comes down to knowing what you are trying to survive, and that includes all the Science of how Electromagnetic Fields work, but a simple electric motor can prove it, a hand held crank generator has a dead spot when it passes through ground and its Field Collapse, this is not a question of if this can happen to Earth, it is a question of when, and we know the answer is 14 January 2033, or when our Magnetic North Pole crosses into 0 Degrees, or Ground, and knowing the Physics of what is going on, the Positive half of the waveform was just canceled out, that means it will collapse, how long is 1 complete rotation, how long does that take, a day, or 24 hours, physics has not changed time, but the field will start to rebuild $\frac{1}{137}$ th the diameter of Earth, what that means, is that the Field will start to turn Negative in 6.66 Minutes, that is better than 24 hours trust me, but what does it mean, well for one, it takes 24 hours to fully recover, but as it starts to get more Negative, it will start holding in our Atmosphere, it will not actually hold it in for 24 hours, but it will slow down the process of venting, tapering it off gradually, so we will be slowly venting out Atmosphere till after 24 hours, as such, to Survive, you must know this is what you have to survive.

Surviving the Sky Falling is part 1, surviving the Atmosphere venting is part 2, and you know there is going to be a part 3, but that comes after 2103 on 14 January, that is how long it took for these effects to take effect on the Planet on a Global Scale, Newton and Halley both agreed that the Planet will crack, meaning a major Earthquake, the point where all the Earths Reserve Heat will be used up, the Crust will freeze down 1 to 3 hundred miles deep, mainly due to the depletion of what you call Oil, and I call the Blood of the Planet, and why Underground is such a bad idea, it is Suicide, as such, decide how you want to live or decide to Die, it is all a personal decision we all need to make ourself.

If you want to Survive the End of Time than it is up to you, my wife and I are both Medically Retired Air Force, and I will be 72 if I live till 2033, and my 100th Birthday is 14 January 2061, the day the Pole reversal will be over, what happens in 2103 is very clear in the Torah, this is the day, again on 14 January, that the Earth will decide if it will go Nova or not, and I will not live to see that event, having Cancer I might not see any of them, so I do not expect to Survive them, and will just sit with my Wife and Dogs, and go out knowing I did the best I could to warn everyone, and know I have been warning them all my Life, but no one wants to hear that I am Jesus Bar Abbas coming back in my Flesh, so Welcome to my Nightmare, and for those of you who want to believe I could have told His-Story any differently, did not get the Story at all, the facts are all true, and verifiable, no reason I would have to lie about them, FOIA if you want to verify it, people do not want to believe the Truth, and you can answer just one more question, are there two Jesus's in the Torah, and Sir Isaac Newton and the King proved Jesus Christ was Inserted into the Torah in the 4th Century, easy to prove, it is Public Domain, and the BBC Special "The Last Magician", from 2013 told you this, proving it is up to you to believe it or not, do something or not, the next Step is 5, the Star known as Christ, but you know it as the Binary Star Serious, it aligns with the Great Pyramid on 14 January every year.
