

Step-24: Future

The Future never comes, because once it gets here it is today, so why do people talk about it like the Future exists knowing that after today, it is yesterday and like the Future, it no longer exists since we can never go back to yesterday any more than we can go forward into the Future, and the Torah said that we cannot predict the future, not even the Prophets, all we can do is understand Science, and what that Science can prove might be a possible future, but still that Future is unknown and will stay unknown till it is yesterday and why the future is unknown, is because it does not exist, it is just a concept of what might happen tomorrow.

The Science of today, tells us that our Planet is going to reverse its poles, and we understand Electromagnetic fields like our Magnetosphere, because NASA did over a 100-years study of our Magnetosphere, and concluded it is decaying at a constant rate of 5% a Century, and since the Earth is not slowing down, it is clear that Centrifugal Force has nothing to do with Gravity, or with Generating our Magnetosphere with the Iron in the Earth, that is called Einstein's Science, and it has never been proven in over a Century, and never will, and now you know why, it does not make any sense, maybe it made cents to Einstein selling books about Science Fiction, but facts are facts, and theories are not a way of explaining facts, so what does Science say is a fact about our Planet Reversing its Polarity, and we all know it will have to collapse the Magnetosphere to reverse, and this takes time, it does not happen instantly, it slowly decayed to 0, and will slowly build back up in the opposite direction, so it all comes down to how long it takes between the time it starts to change, to the time it changes, and using Science I would estimate it will take $\frac{1}{137}^{\text{th}}$ the diameter of the Earth to reverse polarity, and that is 6.66 minutes, so that is 3.33 minutes on each side of the 0 reference line or the Equator, that will be the time when it can no longer hold in our Atmosphere, and it will start to vent for that duration, unless some miracle happens that prevents this, because the Science of it is very clear, all Electromagnetic fields collapse, and our planet acts like an Electromagnet, the Earth does not act like a Magnet, that was the bad science of Einstein's never proven denounced Theory, and why he denounced it, there was nothing to prove, no God, no Light, no Constant for C in $E = MC^2$, proving Newton was right, $E = MA^2$, because we all know the mass can never reach the speed of Light, so all I can tell you, is you better make sure your Science is right.

I cannot say how long it will take to reverse poles having no data to know such things, but if we wait to see what happens and I am right about it taking 6.66 minutes, this will be an instant Ice-Age, so I would say it is best to build something that can survive it, and if it does not happen, we still have Trinary Sanctuary, if the Sky Falls, so it always comes down to what if the Torah is right, considering it is the one who said this was going to happen, and so far, everything they said makes sense, the End of Time, not much else you need to know about it, you either believe the Science and the Torah, or you do not, that is the way the Future is, no guarantees, just Science, and someone warning us this happened before, and they know what it is going to be like when it happens again, our geological records prove this event is real.

The Future is never what we expect it to be, we read a lot of hype about it, but like Y2K, the systems that failed just needed to be fixed, testing for the bug was more destructive than the bug turned out to be, and Linux has a problem with the way they track time, and that bug will be another Y2K problem in the year 2038, so it seems in hindsight, someone would have thought about these limitations to the way they track time, but that is not the case, and that bugs me.

When I was a child, 1990 seemed like such a long time away, but the older I get, the faster the years go by, and in all that time, the Future did not turn out the way I thought it would have, so I know I am no good at predicting the Future, all my plans for the Future never worked out, I knew Micrometeorite showers were going to happen where I lived on Crooked River Ranch, I built a Micrometeorite Shelter the year before, and just got complacent when I went to fill up my two Horses water troughs, and got hit in the head by a Micrometeorite, it just glanced off my head, peeling back my skin to my scalp, so this was like standing on a Railroad Track as you see a Train coming, you think you have all the time in the world to step off the Tracks, but the closer that time we call the Future gets here, it does not matter what I did, I still got hit, and why I know I cannot plan for any Future, not even my own, and considering I will be 72 in 2033, if I live that long with my Cancer, I am just hoping my Dogs can live that long, so I have no plans on surviving the End of Time, I do not think it was ever my role in life to play that part, so I have no idea what my Future will be like, I just play it day by day, just like I write His-Story Step by Step, just so you would understand what it feels like to be an Aspie with a High IQ, who understood all the Greatest Wizards in time, like Brahe, Kepler, Nostradamus, Galilei, Newton, Franklin, and Tesla, just to name a few, there were many more, and all of them were Aspies with a High IQ's, all of them had access to the Torah written during the 3rd Century, and all of them understood it, and looking back to when I was a child, I could not have imagined this Futured.

It is easy to predict the future in hindsight, Nostradamus knew how to read the Torah before the 4th Century, and that is where he found all his predictions, and I can do the same thing with the End of Time, only Sir Isaac Newton beat me to it, he also said Jesus came back in his Flesh, so it is clear to me that they saw the Future we are living now, just events found in the Torah, proving it was the greatest book ever written before the Church Altered it like they Alter Boys, so much for the Greatest book, now it is the Greatest Lie, and I predict everyone connected to the Church will all go to Hell at the End of Time, and time will tell if I am right, because in hindsight it is always easy to predict the past, and if we repeat History, I know this is going to happen.

The only way to know what the future will be like, is to wait for it, and you will be waiting for all Eternity since the Future is always tomorrow, and tomorrow never comes, because once it does it is today, and we do not know what that was like till yesterday, but we still look forward to the future, so what is so special about the future, and why is everyone waiting for it to start their lives, I have been waiting for the future all my life, and have no idea when that future will get here, is our future the Sky Falling and the End of Time, that sounds crazy even to me, people have been carrying signs saying this for a long time, I stopped to talk to one of them one time, never do that again, they were crazy, Jesus Christ was going to come back from the Grave, sounded more like the Night of the Living Dead, Religious Sheep are scary, I try not to talk to them about Religion, and the End of Time is just that to them, and that is when I realized, most people are waiting for Jesus Christ to return, and that is insane, and why Mainstream's version of the Future is Insane, they are going to let all of you die on the surface, that is their version of your future, and why I say everyone on this planet is insane, and time will prove who was right about our future, and that time is only one more decade away, the future of the Sky Falling is yet to be seen, a 96% chance of impact seems like they are sure it will happen, and I have no reason to doubt them, this was a very well written paper if you go to NASA's website and search for "Asteroid 2017 PDC will impact the Earth on July 21, 2027", the short version, I trust NASA about this, as well as our North Magnetic Pole crossing the Equator in 2033, and you will find that NASA believes this event will happen gradually over time, and not worried about our Atmosphere venting into space as Sir Isaac Newton and the Torah said will happen, and what is going to happen in my mind as well, so who is right will be known sometime in 2033, or at the latest 2061 when Newton said this will be over, but it is clear they are pushing Einstein's Theories, if people really believe them is unknown to me, they are insane, and most people are insane, so that might be why they are insane, they believe in things never proven.

The reason why our world is Satanic, is due to Religion and Einstein's Science, and that is all Mainstream pushes, so I must conclude they are lying for a reason, no one is that stupid as to believe in Religion or Einstein's Theories never proven and denounced, that just does not make any sense to me, I have tried to explain it to them, but they are too retarded to understand that God is All Light and Einstein removed that Light with God, and I know Religious People get the fact they are following a Shepard, but they are too retarded to understand that makes them a Sheep, and you have to take the Mark of that Beast to be Religious, regardless of what Religion you are, this applies to the Torah itself, proving those Religious Sheep know they are Worshiping Satan, and why the Roman Soldiers killed all of them, they knew they were worshiping Satan, and wanted nothing to do with their kind, known as Satanic Sheep, who Buy & Sell Souls, they know as Electricity, and why our future is 100% certain extinction.

People can change their future if they wanted to, they do not have to commit Treason every-day of their lives knowing those in power are going to let them all die when the Sky Falls or the End of Time is here, and I am not fine with that, but I cannot change the World, no one will even listen to what I have to say, making it harder to get help documenting the End of Time, and the extinction of the Human Race, but who knows what will happen, the future is not set, the Sky Falling could be a Life Extinction Event, and no one lives to the End of Time, that is one very real possibility, and no one is preparing for it, because digging your graves does not count, you need to go back to counting Sheep, better to die in your Sleep than get crushed to death, but that is the future for many, and it is like standing on the Railroad Tracks when you can see a Train coming, and hear all the Sheep saying go towards the Light, as all the other Sheep step into the Tracks all saying the same thing, nothing will happen to Earth for Millions of Years, yet that is not the way the Torah and Sir Isaac Newton saw it, they saw it as the End of Time, the Torah is public domain, you can read it, not the same as before the 4th Century, but you will get the idea, they did not remove the End of Time, so read all about it, Newton was the Last Magician, he understood how the Universe worked, as did Henrietta Swan Leavitt, as did Nikola Tesla, but because of Satanic People like Thomas Edison, a thief, and J.P. Morgan, Satan himself, the dealer in Souls, we have the future of our extinction as a species who have only known the Darkside for two thousand years, and why they have no concept of the Lightside, and why everyone is Satanic and have no concept of it, and do not believe it, no one will, and why they are all Satanic, Denial is the first symptom you are Satan, because Satan lies to everyone, including Satan, meaning the Satanic Person, it is not a Demonic Spirit or any none sense, it is Money, Law, and Religion, those are all Satan's Domain, and People can change this future if they really wanted to, they would have to skip playing the Blame Game, and just move on, but most people will want Justice, knowing that is also Satan's Domain, Sue and be Sued, that is the only Game the Federal Reserve knows how to play, so do not play this game, there is no taking back a Constitution after 160 years, what would be the point, skip the blame game, and start a new future with a new Boss, you, each and every one of you, then the future will change.

The future of the End of Time might turn out to be how NASA predicts it, it may be a very slow change that does not involve our Atmosphere venting into space, or us losing our Gravity for 6.66 Minutes, that is the "Big Question", what if the Torah is Right, what if Sir Isaac Newton and Edmond Halley was right, what if I am right, and the way I look at this is simple, NASA pushes Einstein, therefore they must believe Einstein, and this is where we find out what future was right, the one in which NASA says do not worry about it, nothing will happen to Earth for the next Million years, so there is no need to prepare for the Sky Falling or the End of Time, go back to Sleep Stupid Sheep, do not pay any attention to the man behind the curtains, because the Great and Powerful Wizard of Ozone, says nothing will happen, just another day, and they will push Global Warming, I have news for you, you will see our Magnetosphere split into two zones, North and South, this is the sequence of events leading up to the Magnetospheres collapse.

You need to research all these events and come to your own conclusion, but do not rely on the Internet to do that research, and first find out if those who wrote it, believed in Einstein, and file that as a Theory never proven, and you have to keep in mind most people believe in Einstein because they are retarded, and theoretical Scientist are not retarded unless they believe in a theory before it is proven, but should not push Science that has Theories in it since they mean it was never proven to be a fact, and you need to use facts when you do any research, but will find none if the person who wrote it believed in theories, and that is a fact, so look at the raw data, and find a way to make sense of it, and maybe form a group of people, who all want to research Trinary Science more, and determine what the truth is, you should never take anyone's word for anything, mine included, I have to rethink the End of Time venting our Atmosphere and losing our Gravity for 6.66 minutes every time I write that, and why is simple, I do not believe we are seeing our Magnetosphere slowly reacting to Magnetic Changes due to the Iron in its Core, I do not believe that is even taking place, I have no reason to believe that Theory since it was never proven, what I do know, is our Earth has a core frequency of 6.66 Hz, and why we orbit the Sun sideways at 66,666 mph, it is because our Planet, like our Sun, has a Trinary Engine, which is a very large scale Trinary Atom, and our Magnetosphere is just the Valance rings around that very large Atom, and that field strength is decaying, yet the planet is not slowing down, proving Einstein is wrong, since it would have to slow down if that was due to Centrifugal Force, and same thing with Iron in our Earth having anything to do with our Magnetosphere, that is just insane, Centrifugal Force would throw us off the Planet and we all know this, so why is Mainstream lying is a question you must answer, are they really that retarded to not understand Johannes Kepler, Sir Isaac Newton and Nikola Tesla, if so why, and there is your answer, they do not want anyone knowing they are Buying & Selling Souls, and that the Church is Worshiping Satan by calling a Deity-God, God, and you all know that is the truth, so do your research and look into this in detail if you want to know the truth.

It is clear NASA is using Einstein's Theory to predict the future, because they say as much in their study of the Magnetosphere, which is based on Einstein's Theory, so they are using a Theory they know for a Fact has never been proven in over a Century, and betting everyone's lives on that Theory they know is a lie, and that is just a fact, you can check out NASA's Site, email, phone them, and ask them if they believe in Einstein, and are using his Theories, and we all know they do, so why would they deny it, and why would you even think of using a theory never proven, that is insane to begin with, and you know that, so these people are Liars, or Retarded, and it does not matter which one they are, because it is clear they are both, and why I believe they lied about going to the Moon, I do not believe we have the technology to land on the Moon today and walk on its surface, prove it, we all know you cannot do it, so why pretend, it is like why pretend you have a Constitution knowing it does not allow anyone but Congress to Print Money, and you cannot make that Treason Legal, nor amend the Constitution to allow Treason, as such, one lie leads to another, and soon your future is nothing but a lie because that is all a Theory is, and that is a fact.

The way I look at this event with the Earth Reversing its Poles, is that we need to know the worst case scenario, which is it going Nova, but I would not think it would till 2103 if it was going to happen, and time will tell, and we can not really debate if the Magnetosphere's Field will Collapse, that is just a matter of Physics, it has to, or it will be defying the Laws of Physics, all Electromagnetic Fields collapse, this is just something we know for a fact, so it is a given this will happen since it has to, the only variable is how long it takes to reverse, and we know from our work with Electric motors like the Earth, which is a very large Atom, and like all Atoms, they must reverse their polarity on some type of schedule, and we know that schedule, it will happen in 2033, if it happens on 14 January, we know our Calendar is right, therefore, the way I look at this event is by the Science of it, and the Physics of it, which is when an Atom reverses its Polarity, its Field will collapse, it becomes invisible, the Holy Ghost Spirit of Mother Nature, and I cannot see this happening any other way due to the Science we know about, but the Future will always correct me if I am wrong, and I hope I am wrong, but I am not willing to risk the Human Race on what if it does not happen, or it does not vent much, and that comes down to Luck, and I do not feel very Lucky about this Event, it just sounds like what the Torah described, and if it was not for Sir Isaac Newton figuring out that our Magnetosphere is decaying at a constant rate, and NASA confirming it, and the Polarity Reversal Newton Calculated would be 180 Degree reversal in 2061, so Newton's Calculations are right, and this is all from the Torah, and I think we all know it is right, and the Torah said this is going to be an Ice-Age, so I would prepare for that being our Future, so the Next Step is 25, when I talk about Civilization.
